

Release from Liability

Important – Please read since you will be releasing the Columbia Swim League from any and all liability for any injury to your child.

The swimmer listed below and his/her parents acknowledged that they are participating in the City Swim Meet at the swimmer's own risk. They further agree to use every precaution to protect himself/herself from injury. In consideration of the fee charged and paid by the swimmer and/or ourselves we hereby individually and jointly release the Columbia Swim League, it's Board of Directors and Team Representatives, and anyone acting on it's behalf as agents or servants, and to hold it and them harmless from any and all liability, claims, damages, actions and causes of action whatsoever, for LOSS, DAMAGE OR INJURY to person including death, or to property, irrespective of how arising and however caused, including but not limited to all kinds of degrees or extent or negligence (except willful and wanton or misconduct), which the Columbia Swim League may commit or be charged with, whether consisting of omission or commission, whether separately or concurring with someone else, and sustained by my child or me in connection directly or indirectly, with the City Swim Meet held at the Sol Blatt Center, and also any injury received while my child is participating in the City Meet.
